

Vermont Agency of Agriculture Food and Markets – Vermont Local Food for Schools Program

The Local Food For Schools \(LFS\) Program is a partnership with the Vermont Agency of Agriculture, Food and Markets and Vermont food hubs to provide local food to Vermont schools at no cost to the schools.

This table specifies the assigned food hub to serve each of the sixty-nine School Food Authorities (SFA) in Vermont through the Local Food for Schools Program. Each SFA’s assigned food hub will make available the amount of funding listed in the “LFS Funds Available” column as a line of credit at the food hub, which can be used to purchase any local, domestic, and minimally processed foods for National School Lunch Program (NSLP) and School Breakfast Program (SBP) meals. The amount of LFS funds available to each SFA was determined in proportion to enrollment, per Vermont Agency of Education records. This program is funded by the USDA through a cooperative agreement with the Vermont Agency of Agriculture, Food and Markets. All funds must be spent by June 30, 2024.

Next Steps:

- SFAs will be contacted by their assigned food hub to participate in the LFS program and utilize the funds set aside for their SFA to purchase local food.
